

Hans-Heinrich Reckeweg Clinical Case Award

Case Report Authorship and Copyright Consent

I confirm that I am the primary and corresponding author of the submitted clinical case report. I confirm that all co-authors have given their consent and permission for submission of this clinical case report and I am authorized to grant the rights mentioned below to Heel without infringement of any third parties' rights.

I confirm that I anonymized the submitted clinical case report according to national and international data protection laws, and the patient cannot be recognized as a person through publication of this case report. I confirm that I have obtained the written Patient Information Consent in the form provided by Award organizers.

I will inform Biologische Heilmittel Heel GmbH ("Heel") immediately in writing after the patient has withdrawn his/her consent to participate in the clinical case report.

Heel is entitled to inform the press about the presentation of the award, the award winner(s) and all clinical case studies submitted for the award.
